

Burndown

Explanation: 🔗

At the start, we need to do planning meetings and people are usually missing due to reading week. Therefore, not been much progress in the first few days. The tasks are gradually getting finished and on track.

We are able to finish the tasks within the sprint. However, we noticed that our velocity is too quick as it seems. We reserved 77 points but we can obviously see a rush at the end. Therefore, in the next sprint, we will try to reduce the points to around 60.
